[ADD: Quote from your company owner or a manager about the reasons for moving and the benefits of the new office space]

Just like moving to a new building shows [ADD: Business name]'s constant improvement, so does their choice in the products they offer. [ADD: Business name] is certified to offer its customers the No. 1 brand in termite control¹ – the Sentricon® System. Sentricon uses subterranean termites' biology against them to eliminate the termite colony and prevent them from attacking homes. The product's design allows termite infestations to be eliminated without disturbing expensive landscaping or drilling holes into a home's floors or foundation.

For more information about general pest control, subterranean termites and the Sentricon® System, contact [ADD: Company name, phone number and website].
